

Showcase Realty to represent City of Charlotte's land and residential real estate sales

CHARLOTTE – August 10, 2012 – The City of Charlotte chose Showcase Realty through a competitive process to market and sell its land and real estate.

“This could be an exciting inventory for buyers and an interesting approach to how we sell property,” said Showcase owner and broker-in-charge Nancy Braun. Braun attributes the company’s selection to its excellent record of success marketing distressed properties for numerous banks, and the soup-to-nuts services provided by the Showcase team.
