Local Real Estate Broker to Speak at National Conference

Nancy Braun, Owner & Broker of Showcase Realty, will be speaking at the 2011 REO Con Default Industry Summit

Charlotte, N.C. (January 18, 2011) – Local real estate broker and business owner, Nancy Braun will speak on a panel discussing “Applied Office Technology & Systems, Social Media and More” at the 2011 REO Con Default Industry Summit on Sunday, January 30, 2011. Braun was chosen for this panel because of her focus on using the most up-to-date technology and capitalizing on the internet to best market their properties and to most effectively service their clients. Braun recognizes the importance of reaching out to the local and national community through this technology and via the internet.

The REO Con Default Industry Summit is an annual conference that draws in affiliates within the Default Industry across the nation. By featuring summit-style panel sessions and discussions, attendees are included in an exchange of ideas that can be valuable for the growth of their business. Each of the experienced speakers has been selected for their expertise and knowledge in their field.

“I am very honored and excited to be chosen to speak at the 2011 REO Con Summit. I am looking forward to sharing what we use at Showcase Realty that makes us unique and successful in the default industry and I am also eager to hear from my colleagues and to grow from this experience,” says Braun.

In today's changing market and economy, the distress market now encompasses bank owned properties, Short Sales and Loan Modifications. Industry leaders are adapting to this change and attendees of the REO Con Summit will have the opportunity to discuss these changes with their colleagues.

As a real estate broker and national speaker (most recently spoke at REOMAC's last conference in Florida), Braun has a firm grasp of the local, state and national markets. She has been a licensed broker for over 14 years and is currently licensed in both North Carolina and South Carolina. Braun started Showcase Realty, LLC in 2008 and has since been using her expertise to focus on the many different facets of the business which include general brokerage, REO, Short Sale, distressed property and she has recently become a Neighborhood HUD Listing Broker.
