

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nancy Braun of Showcase Realty Earns Trailblazer Award Braun recognized by Greater Women's Business Council for her Community and Business Leadership

CHARLOTTE, N.C. [November 12, 2011] Nancy Braun Owner and Broker-in-Charge of Showcase Realty was announced the winner of the Trailblazer Award at the 2011 LACE Awards (Ladies Achieving Continuous Excellence). Braun was presented this award in Atlanta, Georgia at the 2011 LACE Awards banquet. The LACE Awards is a night where the Greater Women's Business Council (GWBC) honors and formally recognizes the corporate partners and the women business enterprises that have made outstanding contributions and demonstrated their commitment to supporting the mission of the organization.

Nancy Braun was honored with the Trailblazer award which is presented to a certified woman owned business owner categorized by annual sales and by state. Braun expressed, "It is a thrill and an honor that my Showcase team performed to a level that enabled me to garner this prestigious Trailblazer award. GWBC is an organization of exceptional women-owned businesses and it is a privilege to earn such high regard. I will continue to support GWBC's outreach to other women-owned businesses in North Carolina."

"We are very proud of Nancy Braun who was one of our 2011 Trailblazer of the Year recipients at the annual LACE Awards" said Roz Lewis, Executive Director, Greater Women's Business Council. "It was her competitive risk taking and innovative character that allowed her to be successful in growing Showcase Realty. This coupled with Nancy's community support demonstrates leadership and commitment to improving the environment in which she lives." The evening honored nominees throughout Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. Women from all over were proud to honor and formally recognize the corporate partners and the women business enterprises that have made such outstanding contributions and demonstrated their commitment to supporting the mission of the organization.

For more information, contact:

Kylie Kenworthy, Director of Public Relations
704-889-5600 PR@showcaserealty.net

